REFERENCES	1. The undersigned met with [] on 14 March 1960. On this occasion, [] seemed much more cheerful than he had at our last meeting, mostly because his trip to Germany seems to have been successful. 2. [] reported that in Frankfurt he had been in touch with Mr. Rudolf HAUS, the director of Girohollas Bank. He is the brother of Karl FRANKFURT, owner of Gropstein, Jr. and Co., bankers, in Cologne. He is also an associate of Robert RECHENBERG. Rudolf HAUS is particularly interested in North African problems. He is especially interested in Morocco where he has invested a great deal of money, and where he works with the Walter financial concerns (Zellidja Mines, etc.). 3. Through HAUS, [] also has put in touch with one Hans RECHENBERG, whose address is Gumpstrasse 5, Bad Jols/Bayern. RECHENBERG is a former officer of the Afrika Corp and was a prisoner-of-war in the United States from 1943-45. Because he refused to work, he states he had "difficulties" with the American military authorities, and seems even now to be quite anti-American. RECHENBERG is a specialist on North African and Middle Eastern questions and is technical advisor to the Girohollas Bank on business with the Arab countries. According to [], he is also in charge of the bank's relations with certain leaders of the F.L.N. RECHENBERG offered to put [] in touch with M. Francois WERHOUD (Ed. de la Forêt, 47, Lausanne). WERHOUD is a Swiss citizen and an administrator of the Banque Commerciale Srele in Switzerland. RECHENBERG also publishes an Information Bulletin and has asked [] to return to Germany at the end of the month to make him some definite job offers which would utilize []'s knowledge of Africa. 4. Also attached to this dispatch are a series of short reports on matters pertaining to Africa which may be of some interest to the AF Division. Headquarters will note that portions of the attached report on Guinea were disseminated by []: [] Attachment: Report, in French, herewith 15 March 1960 Distribution: 3 - Chief, WE, w/o att. 2 - Chief, AF, w/att. []
